LEGENDARY®

Wind Canyon, Theodore Roosevelt National Park – South Unit

— Josh Duhamel —

UNREHEARSED

As the driving force in establishing our national park system, we can all thank President Theodore Roosevelt for this place. His love of conservation continues to be passed down to generations: North Dakota native Josh Duhamel to his son, Axl – and you to your family. Discover the inspiring beauty during this year's 100th anniversary of national parks. Visit us online to discover Josh's favorites and start your own Badlands celebration.
